VOCABULARY
- Friendly letter

ANTICIPATORY SET
I Do: Ask students to recall a time when they or someone they know received a letter in the mail.

  - Who was the letter from?
  - What was the letter about?
  - How did you feel when you read the letter?
  - Did you write back?

Tell students that today they will learn what a friendly letter is and why we write them.

ACTIVITY #1
Prior Knowledge

We Do: Class completes portions “K” and “W” of K-W-L Chart. “K” indicates what students already know about friendly letters. “W” indicates questions for which students would like answers.

ACTIVITY #2

I Do: Read aloud The Jolly Postman.

Check for Understanding:
- What do notice is written at the beginning (or end) of every letter?
- Are the characters writing to friends or strangers?
- What is the character (specify as needed) trying to do in his/her letter?
- What do you think makes this letter (specify as needed) a friendly letter? How do you know?

*Technology: The Jolly Postman read aloud online—http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rQVYLU153uM

ACTIVITY #3

I Do: Distribute paper divided into four sections, numbered 1-4.

Ask:
1. What can you write about in a friendly letter?
2. When might you write a friendly letter?
3. To whom can you write a friendly letter?
4. What do you notice at the beginning (or end) of every friendly letter?

You Do: Write your best answer for the following questions.
| ACTIVITY #4 | We Do: Review student responses to each question.
I Do: Distribute one Post-It Note to each student.
You Do: Write one sentence summarizing why you would write a friendly letter.
We Do: Students read response aloud and post to bottom of “L” on K-W-L Chart.
I Do: Update “L” section of K-W-L chart with what students have “Learned” today. |

ANTICIPATORY SET

I Do: Tell students that today they will continue learning about friendly letters.

We Do: Review what has already been learned about friendly letters from Day 1.

I Do: Tell students that today they will learn about the five parts of a friendly letter.

ACTIVITY #1

I Do: Display Friendly Letter Francis and poster-sized butcher paper.

Explain:

There are five parts in a friendly letter. Friendly Letter Francis will help us identify those parts so that we can write friendly letters. As you label each part of Francis, display Sample Friendly Letter to show what each part actually looks like.

1. Point to Francis’ head. What part of Francis am I pointing to? (head) The first part of a friendly letter is the heading. Label.
   - What do you think is written in the heading? Explain that the heading is used to write the return address and date.
   - Show students that the heading is located at the top of Francis and at the top of the sample letter.

   Engagement Strategy: Ask student helpers to label Francis for you.

2. Repeat Step 1 above for all remaining parts of a friendly letter.
   - What do you think is written in the ________? Explain for which each remaining part is used.

ACTIVITY #2

I Do: Distribute a copy of Friendly Letter Francis to each student. Tell students that now it’s their turn to label Francis and take notes.

You Do: Using your copy of Friendly Letter Francis, label the five parts of a friendly letter and what they are used for.

I Do: Model how to label “Heading” and write “Return address and date”. Students complete remaining parts independently using your sample from “Activity #1”.

ACTIVITY #3

Closure

I Do: Ask students to turn their Friendly Letter Francis paper over so they cannot see notes. Display image of Francis and prepare printed labels and descriptions.

We Do: Students take turns labeling Francis with correct parts of a friendly letter and descriptions.

Engagement Strategy: Students show agreement/disagreement with label placement by showing thumbs up/down.

ANTICIPATORY SET

We Do: Refer students back to K-W-L Chart from Day 1 and review what has already been learned about friendly letters. Identify any questions in “W” section which have been answered. Write answers in “L” section along with any other new information.

ACTIVITY #1

I Do: Tell students that they will use a graphic organizer to help them remember the five parts of a friendly letter. Distribute Friendly Letter Flipbook.

We Do: Teacher models how to use Friendly Letter Flipbook. Fold along center line. Students draw themselves on front cover (head, body, legs). Cut along dotted lines. On the inside, students write notes for each part of a friendly letter (See Friendly Letter Flipbook Instructions). Complete inside of foldable as a class.

Modification Strategy: Prefill sections of Friendly Letter Flipbook as needed.

You Do: Students will finish drawing and coloring cover of foldable independently.

I Do: Review students’ graphic organizer for accuracy and completion. Correct misunderstandings as needed.

ACTIVITY #2

We Do: Think-Pair-Share Activity- Students take turns explaining the five parts of a friendly letter to on another (2 minutes).

I Do: Ask students to share one important thing their partner had to say about the parts of a friendly letter.

ACTIVITY #3

Closure

I Do: Distribute one index card to each student. Tell students they will have three minutes to write down the five parts of a friendly letter.

We Do: Label your index card with the heading ‘Five Parts of a Friendly Letter’. Next, write the numbers 1-5 on the left side of the index card.

You Do: Students write the five parts of a friendly letter in the correct order.

Modification Strategy: Ask students who finish early to use the back of the index card to show an example of a greeting, closing, and signature.

ANTICIPATORY SET
We Do: Using the Friendly Letter Flipbook from Day 3, review the five parts of a friendly letter.
I Do: Tell students that today they will be arranging the mixed up parts of a friendly letter.

ACTIVITY #1
I Do: Read aloud Dear Mrs. LaRue: Letters from Obedience School.
Check for Understanding- Ask:
- What do notice is written at the beginning (or end) of every letter?
- Are the characters writing to friends or strangers?
- What is the character (specify as needed) trying to do in his/her letter?
- What do you think makes this letter (specify as needed) a friendly letter? How do you know?

ACTIVITY #2
I Do: Tell students that today they will be taking the mixed up parts of a friendly letter and arranging them in the correct order.
Distribute Friendly Letter Mix-Up. Explain to students that they will cut out the pieces of the letter. Then, they will arrange them in the correct order on their desk. Once the letter is arranged, students will glue the correctly arranged parts onto a piece of construction paper.
We Do: Model for students how to cut out pieces. Ask students to help find the first part of a friendly letter and show them how to arrange the piece on their desk.
You Do: Cut out the friendly letter parts and arrange them on your desk. Once they are in the correct order, glue them to your construction paper.

ACTIVITY #3
Closure
We Do: Peer review. Students trade letters and review for accuracy.

ANTICIPATORY SET

I Do: Tell students that they will be editing their friendly letter using proofreading marks. Explain to students that before writing a final copy of their letter, it is important to reread it and check for mistakes. As mistakes are found, editing marks are used to highlight those errors so they can be fixed on the final copy.

ACTIVITY #1

I Do: Post Editing Marks and review with students.

OR

I Do: Post or display Mystery Marks activity. Ask students to identify the editing mark for each description.

ACTIVITY #2

I Do: Display Sample Friendly Letter (Editing). Demonstrate to students how to read and mark their letter when an error is found.

We Do: Continue editing the sample friendly letter as a class.

Engagement Strategy: Ask student helper(s) to write editing marks as they are found by the class.

ACTIVITY #3

You Do: Now you will have a chance to revise your own friendly letter using editing marks.

I Do: As students revise their letter, check students' letters for understanding and address mistakes as needed.
